

GenieEvo lifting instructions

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Panel types:VC2, VC6, VC12, VBES,&amp; VBT Note: Lifting chains/ropes shall be positioned at 2000mm from the lifting points as shown. Important: during the lifting of the unit, all four lifting points must be used  Forklift truck lifting points Maximum mass = 650kg | Panel types:VB6 &amp; VB12 Note: Lifting chains/ropes shall be positioned at 2000mm from the lifting points as shown. Important: during the lifting of the unit, all three lifting points must be used  Forklift truck lifting points Maximum mass = 750kg |
| Panel types:VC21, VC25 Note:- Lifting chains/rope shall be positioned at 2000mm from the lifting points as shown. Important:- During the lifting of the unit all 4 lifting points must be used.  Maximum mass = 800kG                                                                | Panel types:VB21, VB25 Note:- Lifting chains/rope shall be positioned at 2000mm from the lifting points as shown. Important:- During the lifting of the unit all 4 lifting points must be used.  Maximum mass = 1000kG                                           |